Jaya Om Vishnupada Paramahansa Parivrajakacharya Astotara Sata
Sri Srimad Srila Bhakti Sundar Govinda Dev-Goswami Maharaj ki jay!

Sri Sri Guru Gauranga Gandharva-Govinda Sundar jiu ki jay!

Dear Gurudeva, accept my humble obeisances unto your lotus feet in the most auspicious day of your Vyasa Puja.

The appearance of your holy person in this material environment is very rare and, by that, a fallen soul like me can be rescued from the propensity of exploitation and renunciation. Just by seeing a Paramahansa Vaishnava like you every part of our being is enlightened with Krishna Consciousness. Your activities are always supreme-ly and transcendently favorable for every living entity who, by your causeless mercy, come in touch with your Divine Grace.

Your life is an example of perfect behavior from the very beginning, and no one can be compared to you in any sense. You can execute every kind of service with perfection and no one can please Srila Guru Maharaj as you do.

In your causeless mercy you became friend and spiritual master of so many people from the mlechas, and your example of affection is supreme. Who could represent Lord Nityananda's mercy better than you?

In 1998, when you came to Brazil, I saw miracles happening. I saw my mleccha family, who never had any attraction for spiritual life, jumping and singing: "All glories to Govinda Maharaj, all glories to Govinda Maharaj". My sensation in those days was as if all the environment and all living beings suddenly became Krishna Conscious and all of them were praising your glories, starting from the trees, going to insects, beasts, minerals and humans. On those days, it came to my mind the reason why Lord Krishna says "acharya mam bijaniyan". I can't understand those misteries, but I could feel something related to this expression of the Lord seeing your pastimes in Brazil.

Dear Gurudeva, I am very fallen to even try to glorify you and most probably all my attempt here is just an offense to your lotus feet and for that I beg you to forgive me for trying to serve and glorify you.

Again, I bow down to your Divine Grace hoping that one day I will be a proper recipient to accommodate all the mercy you are bestowing upon me.

Your servant from Brazil.

Swami Bhakti Vijay Trivikrama

My Dear Gurudeva,

Please accept my dandavat pranams at Your super wonderful Lotus Feet.

All Glories to You who always satisfies Srila Guru Maharaj and who takes care of the devotees.

All glories to You who light up the whole world with Your presence.

All glories to You who saved my life from ignorance.

All Glories to You who are the king of tolerance and humility.

Your presence in my life is the most important thing in my existence.

You are the source of inspiration that makes me build positive things.

I hope from the core of my heart to be always worthy of your attention and affection.

If You forget me I will die in few minutes. Nothing in this world is more important than to help You in Your wonderful mission. You can always rely on me.

Your Eternal Servant,

Rohini Shakti d.d.

Dear Gurudeva

Accept my humble obeissances at Your sacred Lotus Feet.

Today is a very special day for it is the day we celebrate the appearance of the authentic Guru who is transcendental to this world, You.

When I was six years old I took harinam initiation from You on Your first visit to Brazil, and until today I try to follow Your instructions, what is very difficult in this age of Kali.

Thank you for what you have been doing for the devotees all around the world with Your mercy and contagious happiness.

I hope You are in good health and wish You all the best in this such special day!

Hare Krishna!

Your humble servant

Dear Srila Gurudeva Govinda

ing personality.

Govinda Mohini D.D.

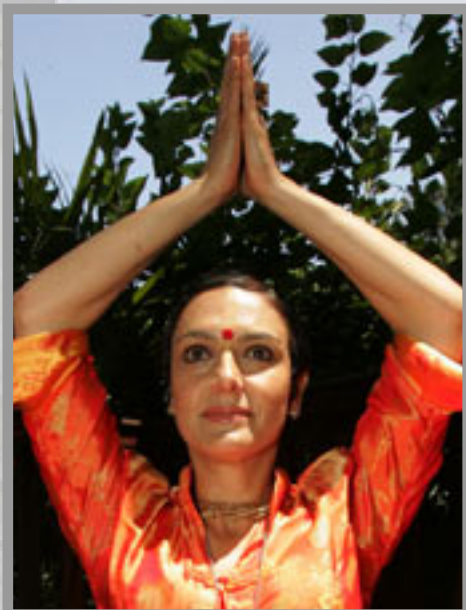

All Glories to Sri Guru and Sri Gauranga!

Dear Srila Gurudeva

Accept my dandavat pranams at Your feet.

Dear Guru, when I went to live by myself, many years back, among my responsibilities I had the possibility to take care of the little plants at home. There were only a few of them but of various types –flower, bushes, little trees, all types of green... I thought, they must be watered. I started to practice a watering ritual. I watered the little plants three times a day because I was afraid they would dry up.

Suddenly I started to notice the plants were yellowing, getting ugly, near death. My mother saved me, for she is an excellent agriculturist. She knows the proper drop for each species. At that point I became aware of life. I started to discover the excess also kills.

Still without your blessing, I started to understand that life is made of right measures. That was the time I received the happiness of being initiated and got your blessings.

Your light showed me that when one has a good intention but practices excessive action, sometimes we slowly kill. In love I learned that we love gradually. The other is always the good measure. If it is too intense, the other may feel pressed, and if it is vague may feel abandoned. The measure of love is that one that subtly we supply the little and lot in our life's everyday.

At work, I learned that little by little we will get our space. To kick the door will not necessarily open the path and to knock at it will not always be effective; waiting for the door to open also was not a solution. You thought me by your mercy that I should be more attentive those times I had to talk and listen to those who were crossing such doors to find out that the path many times is to be found in our daily walk through life's walkways. The doors open after a successful walk, a good conversation at the right time, and a work well done at the needed time. You thought me there were windows and also empty spaces and different types of persons. The goal passed through several paths. The work is measured by the doing and undoing life obliges us to go through at times.

You thought me there are measures of friendship, as well in love and work. The friends are friends as long as we are also friends without excess or lack of companionship

Life was discovering me, in my excesses and shortcomings and, with your help, I was discovering the paths of life and its excesses and shortcomings.

Today, I have a beautiful garden built with your divine help with an enormous variety of species and I still practice my watering ritual, but now I pay attention to the special care each requires.

The excesses still take place, but I still face a long path ahead of me, what is not justified, but is a consolation to think that I still have time to find full harmony between the little and lot life gives me.

You are my beloved Master, a window. Thanks for giving me the opportunity to taste a little of Your mercy.

In the East, the Master's blessing is very important. The West still doesn't understand that. But you also thought me that a Master makes one have a taste. There are many teachers, but only few Masters.

The West has difficulty to understand: "Why to bow before a Guru? Why to bend our head before Him? That seems humiliating." But, if one wants to get it one must bow. You have thought me that when a disciple, possessed by full faith, bows down at the feet of the Master, something is taking place there, something invisible to the eyes. Some energy is flowing from the Master, entering the disciple.

The Master is carrying the Divine Energy, possesses unlimited energy and may spill it over infinite disciples. He is never exhausted, now, that is in contact with the Whole, that found the source of everything. Surrender to God is difficult, since one does not know where God is. He never gave His address to no one. But one finds a Guru. If someone asks me what is a Guru, I will say the Guru is the right address of God.

Thank You for spilling Your blessings over my life. May we celebrate many many times Your Anniversary.

Dear Srila Gurudeva

I was just initiated, and today I feel very happy.

It was a very simple ceremony but had a fundamental importance in this new path I choosed to go through.

I had a troublesome week, giving pain to may hart and soul, making me uncontrollably anxious.

I came to harinama initiation head down, whitout much hope or any perspective, but when the ceremony started something was nourished and calmed my heart down, letting me feel great peacefullness.

Your energy is very powerfull, and it crosses continents.

I feel protected, watched over by someone who only wishes my good, and I feel I have a counselor by my side, speaking softly in my ears, repressing me at times of error, counseling me at difficult times and laughing at happy moments.

Thank you very much for the peace you make me feel.

Your disciple

Dear Gurudeva,

Accept our obeissances. We hope this finds You well and with plenty of health.

It is very good to know You exist and is taking care of us even being so far away.

It is not easy to live in this world, but with your words of love and teachings we learn to serve. Seeing You, even if in a photo, makes the day more beautifull.

We hope You will come to visit Brazil soon. Thus we will be able to hear You and be near You. To be able to touch Your Lotus feet would bring us much happyness.

It is inconceivable to us to think of the world without Your presence, without your smile, without your teachings and without Your affection You naturally give to all of us.

We wish You a Happy Anniversary.

Our 10-year old son asked us to write You this words: "Dear Gurudeva, I am Sudarshana. I am greatly fond of You. Happy anniversary."

Dandavats,

Veda Priya D.D., Ramasundar Dasa and Sudarsana.

All Glories to Sri Guru and Sri Gauranga!

Dear Srila Gurudeva, please accept my affectionate and really grateful obeissance.

I wish you all the best in this most special day.

Thank you so much for everything, especially for nourishing for so long such a beautiful family (and thank you for your patience with me).

Heartfelt dandavats from this most fallen soul.

All Glories to Sri Sri Guru and Gauranga!

All glories to My Divine Spiritual Master Srila B.S. Govinda Dev-Goswami Maharaj!

All glories to our beloved Srila Guru Maharaj!

All glories to the discipic succession of all previous spiritual masters!

My respects and dandavats to all my spiritual brothers and sisters!

All glories to the assembled devotees!

Dear Srila Gurudeva

Please, allow me to do full dandavat at Your lotus feet.

Srila Gurudeva, You are the hope that enlightens my steps in the dense darkness of my limited perception.

My life takes shelter at Your Divine Grace's lotus feet.

Srila Gurudeva, You are the most adorable gift Sri Krishna Chaitanya granted to the conditioned souls of Kali Yuga.

My greatest treasure is my connection with You, Srila Gurudeva.

My life was empty and senseless until I met You, Srila Gurudeva!

Humbly.

With love from Your servant,

Ananta Dev Das
(Curitiba)

Srila Gurudev Govinda Maharaj,

I am very happy to be able to send you this letter. Krishna is very merciful to me, because He allows me to feel your kindness and love although being so far away, and always guides me through the right paths. It is that love that captivates the hearts of His devotees and frees us from bad things.

I cannot find words to describe my happiness, and I would like to thank you for being such an unending source of inspiration, and thank you for being among us and giving us the truth, the transcendental knowledge. I would like to also ask you something: it is my desire to take shelter at your lotus feet and follow your teachings. It is a desire of my heart.

My grandfather used to always tell me that we must take very nice care of our green garden, because it is from there we get our survival. My green garden is this Krishna consciousness, it is what maintains my soul. I have so much to learn still, but I promise to remember the Lord's teachings, respect the scriptures and follow your instructions wherever I'll be. Since happiness is in the pure love of Krishna and devotional service. That is the very pure faith I want for my life.

You are my dear and eternal master, who shelters my little heart. Let your love and peace spread around the world, and may the sweet blue boy always protect you. We are very happy celebrating your 79th Vyasapuja!

Lots of health and peace.

My respectful and eternal dandavats

Hare Krishna!

My Dear Srila Gurudeva,

Please accept my dandavat pranams at Your lotus feet. All Glories to You.

Thank you very much for Your mercy and inspiration You bring to my life.

I live at Sri Caitanya Sridhar Govinda Seva Ashram, in Campos do Jordão, Brazil, under the care of Srimati Rohini Shakti Didi. She is very heavy with me. I am under the protection of Sripad B.V. Trivikram Maharaj, and in this way, my life has become regulated and i feel myself clean and loved.

Sometimes it is difficult but i can't imagine anything better.

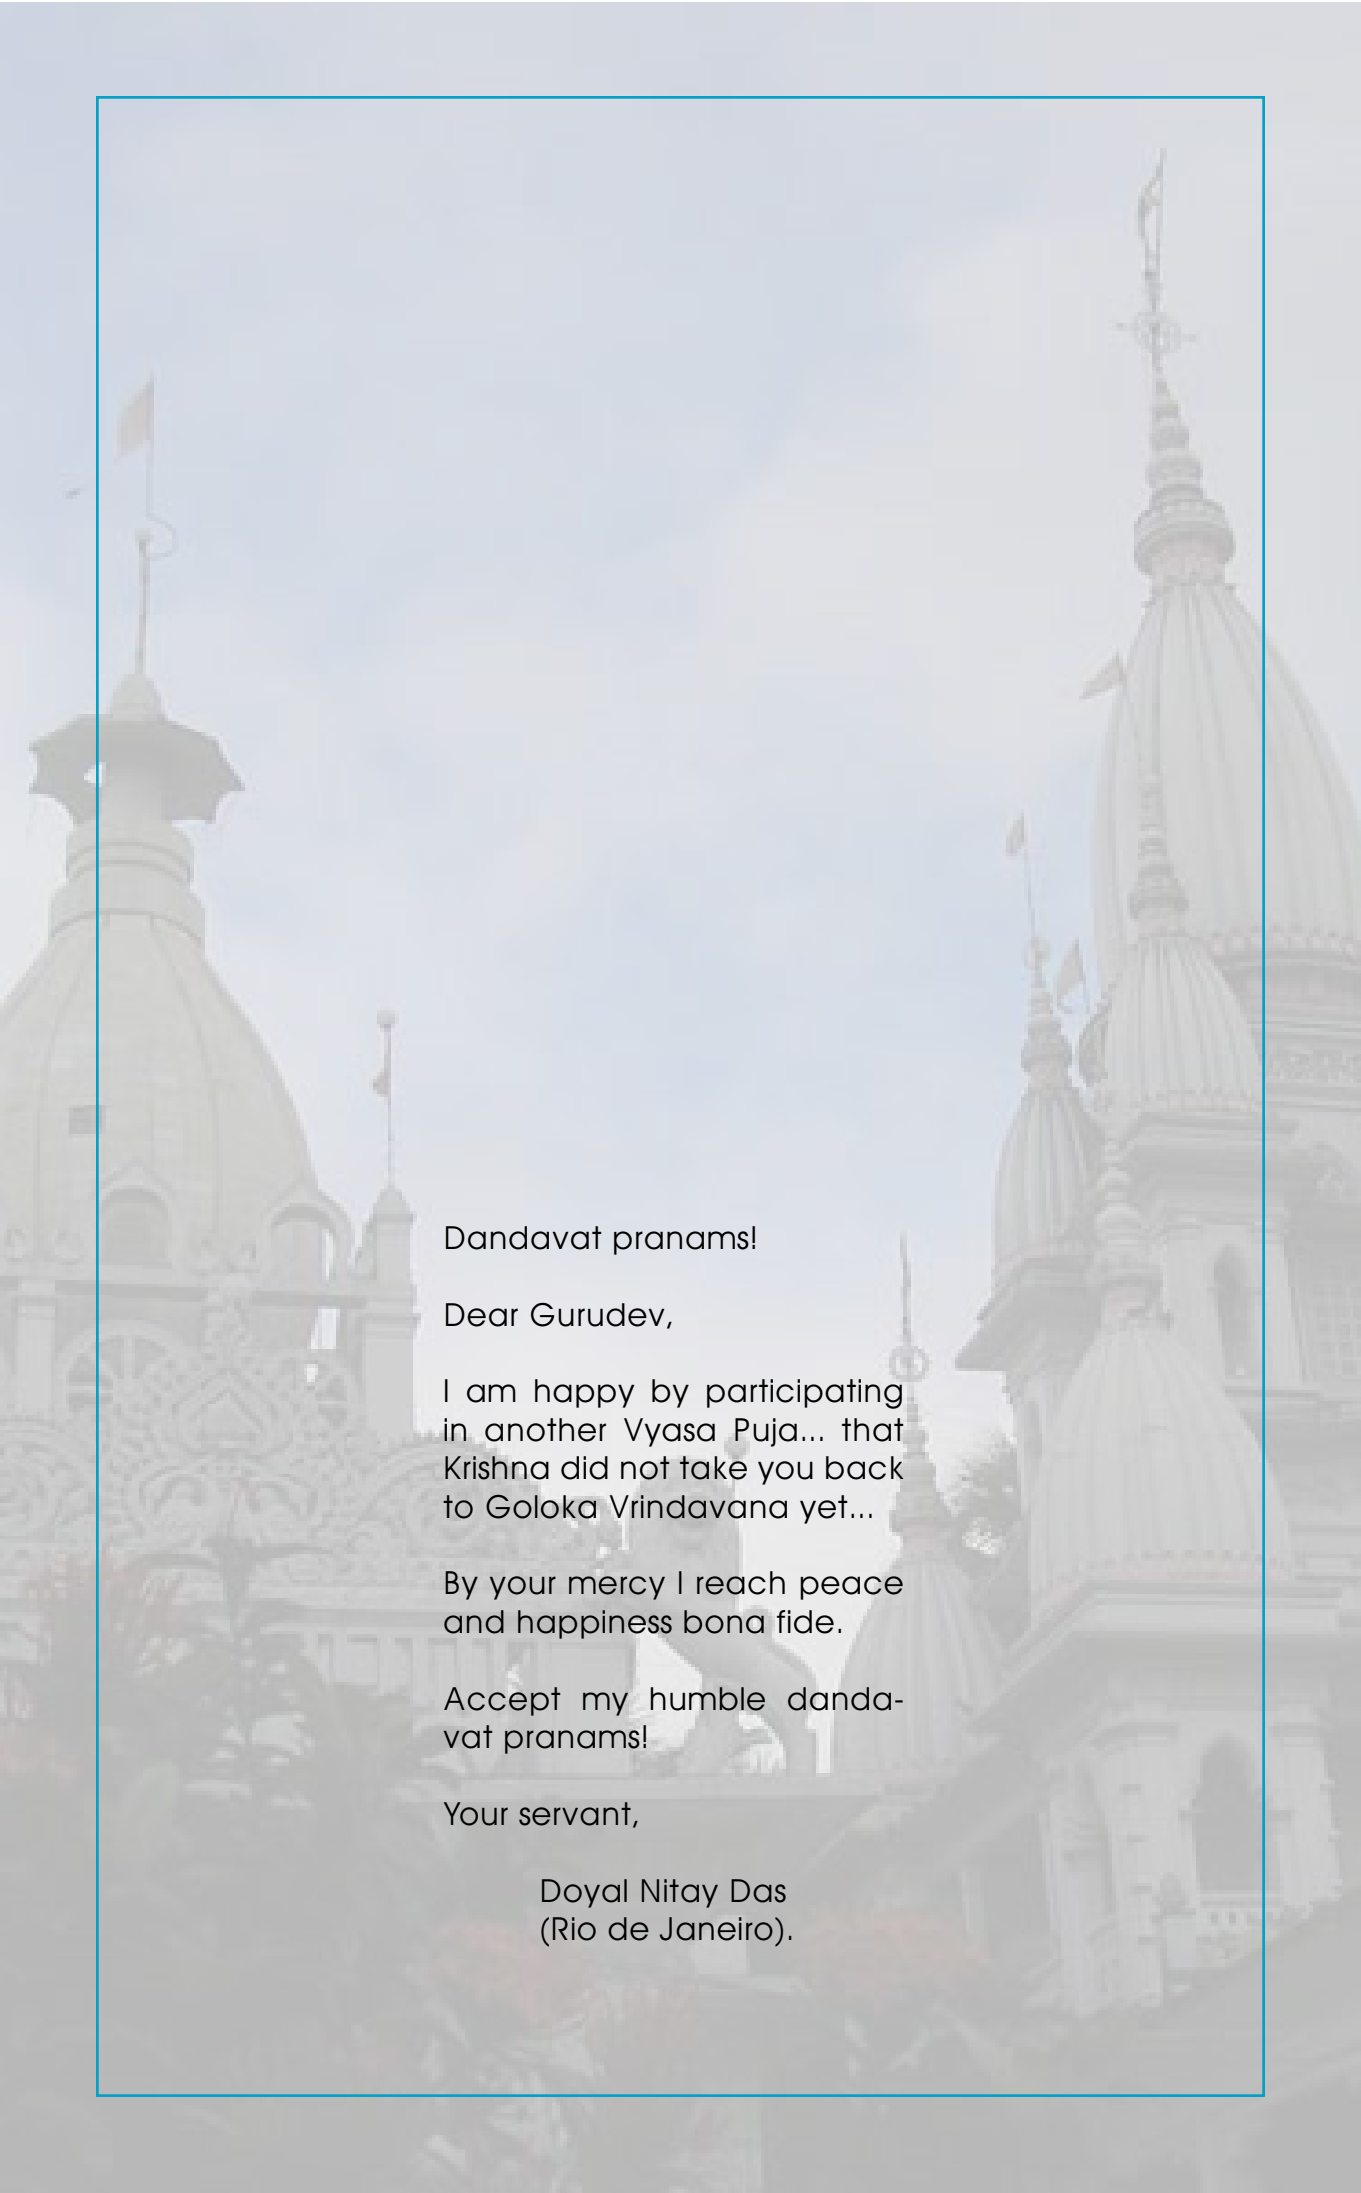

I hope someday i will be able to meet You personally, and before this happen, i will serve your mission here in Brazil.

Mother Rohini is very angry, but she also give me chocolate and milk shakes. By your mercy I have dear friends here as Venu Gita Didi, Sundar Gopal Prabhu and Vraja Kumar Prabhu. By your mercy i wake everyday before the sunrise and chant to Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu.

Thank You very much. I hope your health is good and that you are feeling happy.

With great affection, Your aspirant servant,

Dandavat pranams!

Dear Gurudev,

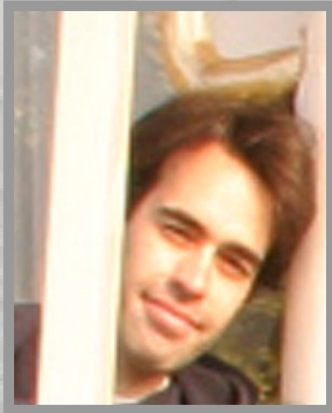

I am happy by participating in another Vyasa Puja... that Krishna did not take you back to Goloka Vrindavana yet...

By your mercy I reach peace and happiness bona fide.

All Glories to Sri Guru and Sri Gauranga!

Dear Srila Gurudeva

I hope You are well. Accept my dandavats.

It is with much happyness that I write this few lines to thank You for all the mercy You granted me and thank all persons that met You and who are communicating to us the undescribable experience it is to be next to You inspiring us to continue on this path that is practically impossible and uncomprehen- sible for me.

I hope You come to Brazil to accpet the gift I asked Bhuvana Mohan Prabhu to add to this message: a Lunch Voucher at he tran- scendental Prema Restaurant of the type "all YOU can eat" eternally.

Sincerely yours.

SRILA GURUDEVA GOVINDA
DEV-GOSWAMI MAHARAJ

I had the enormous fortune to be invited in 1987 by Sripad Bhuvana Mohan Prabhu to come to the huge country of India, but specialy to the small town of Navadwip, in Bengal, to that which I might dare to classify as being a Golden Drop of Pure Consciousness from the Spiritual World.

I will never be able to explain such great benevolence and priviledge il received. Yet within my infinitesimal consciousness, I try to hold on to Devotional Service to the Holy Names honoring Srila Sridhar Dev-Goswami Maharaj, You, Srila Gurudeva Govinda Dev-Goswami Maharaj, and Sripad Buvanan Mohan Prabhu, my Spiritual Masters and to all Sincere Devotees of this Sampradaya, our Disciplic Succession.

I pay my obeissances at the Lotus Feet of these authentic Spiritual Masters whom I try to serve. I don't know what kinf of offense I will be doing but I would like to humbly request from you to stay the longest time possible together with Sripad Bhuvana Mohan Prabhu among us who aspire for devotion, to nourish us with the nectar of devotion to SRI KRISHNA through Your teachings.

With the deepest and sinceremost sentiment I find in my heart I offer my obeissances to You, the Spiritual Master of the hankering hearts of those souls fallen into this material plane of conscie-ness.

HARE KRISHNA

Dear Srila Gurudev,

Please let me offer my very humble obeissances to Your Divine Grace and take a little moment of Your time to read this simple but whole-hearted message.

By your unlimited mercy I ask You to please let me be near You or Your associates forever trying to serve.

Thank You for give me the opportunity to get back home, to live in the Vaishnava family as a humble student I try to be.

Late, but not too late, I think, I discovered that real life means to try to understand the Vaishnava saints' way of life, their way of thinking and feeling with a sweet heart, appropriate eyes to see and right words to wake up all our souls, and then follow Them, and You, Srila Gurudev, who mean all this to us.

I hope I never disappoint You and that I'll be ever working to do that which could make You transcendently happy and satisfied.

Please let me embrace You and prostrate at Your sweet lotus feet.

Dear Srila Gurudeva,

Please accept our dandabat pranams,

We hope You are well and improving your health.

In this Vyasa Puja we will have the opportunity to be next to you to celebrate Your anniversary. It will be an honor and a moment of great emotion to us.

It will be a dream coming true! To be at Your lotus feet in the occasion of celebrating Your appearance divine, together with all the auspicious Vaishnavas allowed to enter such good association.

In Brazil, we have the opportunity to learn about Krishna Consciousness with Sripad Bhuvana Mohan Prabhu and Sripad Trivikram Maharaj, besides having the teachings of Rodhini Didi, our yoga master.

We are on our way to serve You in this such an auspicious date, to serve our Mission and to get Your blessings.

We humbly wish You an excellent anniversary and pray that You may remain with us to bless our paths.

With Love and respect,

My Dear Srila Gurudeva:

All glories to You, today and ever, as You are the beloved Pure Devotee of Sri Gauranga – the holy incarnation of Pure Devotion to Sri Sri Radha Krishna!

Therefore, I take shelter, today and forever, at Your Sacred Lotus Feet, the sole path for the fallen souls such as my own to reach the eternal world of Sri Krishna.

On this Day of Glory when we celebrate Your all auspicious Appearance in this world, I humbly and devotedly salute and congratulate You – although we are those who should be congratulated – O Master of Devotion, Master of Pure Seva, Master of Transcendental Knowledge!

You have come to enlighten mankind as a Sun of Eternal Bliss, to conduct the fallen souls back to Godhead, placing us before the Live Teachings You received from Your Acharya Masters that

You give to us with your examples of unequivocal and untangible Seva to Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu, Who is the explosion of Pure Divine Extasy in the contemplation and worship of Sri Sri Radha Krishna.

I can tell You, with all sincerity of my soul, that in this 25 day of December of 2007, for the first time I will be celebrating true Christmas – the Vaishnava Christmas! It is not just the remembrance of a historically distant event that took place in Bethlehem, of which there is no historical evidence, but it is an equivocal feeling of a christianity based upon material values.

Today, Srila Gurudeva, I celebrate a real date, historical and transcendental, when my fallen soul follows a Glorious Star, that with its blissfull light show us the way, the path to Navadwip, in West Bengal, where we find the incarnation of Humbleness, Compassion, Charity, Kindness and Surrender, the one who is known by His disciples as the Cristal Clear Mirror of Pure Devotion reflecting the One who lives in the hearts of all living beings in the material and spiritual universes– Your Divine Grace, much loved by Sri Sri Radha Krishna, whom I congratulate humbly in dandavat-pranams at Your Lotus Feet.

Rajendra Krishna Das – a humble and fallen of Your devotees, but one who keeps You in the heart with the purest love and devotion (Alagoas).

Dear Gurudeva

Srila Bhakti Sundar Govinda Dev-Goswami Maharaj accept my most respectfull obeissances

In the middle of the wrong paths of this material world, in the immense-ness of this darkness, only Your soul shines resplandecent, thus living in my remembrance.

I feel Your mercy and how big it is, every time I feel myself to be as an insect, lost and with my wings tired, attracted towards the light bulb in an extatic dive and, once near it, I don't want to go away.

I love You Gurudev!!!

Rupanuga das

Gurudeva, receive my sincere dan-davats and humble felicitations.

I am greatfull to You and try to follow Your teachings, which are gently being given to me by Bhuvan Mohan Prabhu, with whom I have the honor to share almost daily during lunchtime at Prema.

14 months have passed since I took harinam diksa and the day I received my spiritual name and the holy name as Your disciple through Sripad Trivikram Maharaj and I must say that although I feel like a baby crawling, I have no fear nor cares, for I feel your hand always supporting me and showing me the right path to follow,

Therefore, I am very greatfull to You, and the way to express that is by saying a simple:

Thank You Very Much!

I wish you much happyness!

Satyavacha Das

Dear Srila Gurudeva,

Please accept our dandavat pranams at Your lotus feet. All Glories to You. We hope You feel well.

By Your mercy we are very happy in the Sri Caitanya Sridhar Govinda Seva Ashram, in Campos do Jordão.

Under the care and instructions of Sripad B.V. Trivikram Maharaj and Srimati Rohini Shakti d.d. our hearts are calm, our minds inspired and we live practicing a simple life with high thinking.

We feel we are growing and qualifying ourselves as human beings, and all this is only due to You.

Thank You very, very much for all your arrangements.

Again our dandavats at Your Lotus Feet.

Your aspirant servants,

Sundar Gopal das
Venu Gita d.d.

All Glories to Sri Sri Guru and Gauranga!!

Adorable Srila Gurudeva Govinda Maharaj:

I spend years of my life begging to our beloved Krishna to get a pure spiritual master in my life, since I needed to start a real spiritual life, until the day I faced Your name, that was very attractive to my heart and thus it begun my affection to You.

The appearance of an Acharya is named avirbhava, when he accepts a material body to perform His pastimes, just like Sriman Mahaprabhu did. The word GURU is very special since GU means ignorance and darkness –that is, physical and mental attraction to the material world–, and RU means light, one who gives light, who eliminates this attraction. Thus the word GURU designates the one who transforms ignorance and darkness into spiritual realization.

Srila Gurudeva Govinda Maharaj, You are my eternal Guru, You are constantly present in my thoughts and heart, and I thank enormously to Krishna to have sent You to this world, to free us from darkness, to experience Your affection and to understand our position of eternal servitors of Krishna. I don't even know how to glorify You, but I think You are my Krishna. I am constantly grateful for Your presence in this material world.

Trying to be Your servant,
Murali Manohara Dasa
(Itajaí-Santa Catarina)

Divine Master,

Bowing my head with great care unto Your Lotus Feet I hope I may have permission to worship You in this most auspicious day.

I seek Your shelter. Please be merciful with this wicked soul and grant me asylum.

I long for Your protection because without the shelter of Your Lotus Feet I am helpless.

This aspiration of reaching the cooling shade of your moonlike feet is surely pretentiousness for one such as I, but I have no other shelter than Your mercy.

Let me find nourishment only in the sacred nectars of Seva. In this way, all mundanity must come to an end and maybe someday I will be able to rejoice in Sadhu Sanga.

Always controlled by all evil qualities this destitute prays for purification.

I am eternally indebted to You.

Please use me as You wish.

Srila Gurudeva, we would love you to come one of this days to Brazil. You represent that which we respect and apreciate most in our lives. We will feel eternally greatful for that mercy, although we don't deserve it.

We are trying to serve You helping Sripad Trivikrama Maharaj and Srimati Rohini Shakti DD and Prabhu Bhuvana Mohan.

Dear Srila Gurudeva

What can I say in this most auspicious day of Your Divine Grace's Divine Appearance in this world that was not said millions of times glorifying You in a better way by so many exalted Vaishnavas that adore Your Divine Person?

My fallen and unqualified soul approaches You on this holiest of holy days ever hopeful to bring You some happiness by my doings, as a child that approaches his father to show his childish plays.

Gurudeva, when I consider my fortune I find it is unlimited for in this lifetime I got the affection of three pure devotees of the Lord and was able to engage in their seva: Srila Prabhupad, Srila Guru Maharaj and Your Divine Grace.

Gurudeva, when I think of You I see how, like the Lord Himself, You have appeared in this world bringing with you your eternal exalted associates, and just remembering few of them, I want to be able to glorify them together with You, for they are expert in fulfilling the desires of Your heart in serving the Sacred Mission of Srila Guru Maharaj to bring the flag of Sri Chaitanya Saraswat Math all around the world, serving the Deities of Sri Sri Gaur Gandharvika Govinda Sundar and taking care of the holy devotees who are so intensely serving the mission.

Here in Brazil also, I am very happy to see Your eternal servants fading in from the dark side of reality into the light of Your Divine Mission, serving You with excellence and pleasing You to such an exalted degree.

Well, it is also my fortune indeed to have their association and to learn from them how to please You. In this way, I become capable to slowly change my feathers so that, one day, You will allow me to become part of your entourage of fully dedicated servants.

I am infinitely grateful to You for allowing me to be part of Your Mission.

Please receive my loving affection.

Bhuvana Mohandas
